NELLIE BLY LED THE WAY.

THE GRAND JURY REPORTS ON AROSE AT BLACKWELL'S ISLAND ASYLUM.

The hearing opened by "The World."—An investigation of the condition of the Female Insane Asylum at Blackwell's Island yesterday before the Grand Jury. The report of the Grand Jury was read to the Court at 12:15, and the Court, together with the evidence, will be printed in the next number. The following is a summary of the report of the Grand Jury:

The Grand Jury, composed of 12 men, was selected in December last, and the hearing was held at the asylum. The report of the Grand Jury is as follows:

The Grand Jury finds that the Female Insane Asylum at Blackwell's Island is not properly conducted, and that the conditions are such as to cause injury to the inmates and to the public. The report recommends that the asylum be immediately closed, and that a new asylum be erected at a distance from the city.

The Grand Jury further recommends that the insane be transferred to an asylum in the country, and that the existing asylum be used for the reception of the insane of the city.

The report of the Grand Jury will be printed in the next number of "The World."