THE NELLIE BROWN MYSTERY.

Her Story As Told Daily To Day by the City Newsapers.

[From the New, Sept. 29.]

WHO IS THIS INSANE GIRL?

She is Pretty, Well-Dressed and Spanish.

She Was Found in a Hospital for Insane Women and is Said to Be a Spanish Resident of New York.

[From the New, Sept. 30.]

HER MEMORY GLOOMED.

The Insane Girl, in Blackwell's Island, Who Has No Recognition of Her Past.

It is a sad case.

A young lady of eighteen, neatly dressed, showing no signs of distress, and bearing every evidence of having been well educated and tenderly reared and educated, now suffers from mental derangement.

The scene of the derangement was the asylum at Blackwell's Island.

The case of Nellie Martin, or Nellie Brown, as she is called, is one of the most tragic in the history of mental derangement. She was discovered on September 26th, after being absent for several days. She was taken in by Dr. Brannan, who is the superintendent of the asylum, and now is in his care.

Her memory is gloomed.

She is a Spanish girl, and has no recognition of her past.

[From the Evening Telegram, Sept. 30.]

THE BEAUTIFUL WRECK.

Sad Case of Nellie Martin.

The case of the beautiful young lady who wandered into the arms of a man for her own protection is still at Blackwell's Island. She is there at the time of this writing, and Dr. Brannan, the superintendent, is doing all in his power to help her.

She is a Spanish girl, and has no recognition of her past.

[From the New, Oct. 1.]

NELLIE MARTIN ON BLACKWELL'S ISLAND.

She Told a Little about Herself, but is in a Sad Condition.

Nellie Martin, who is said to be Nellie Brown, the pretty young girl who was found in Blackwell's Island, has been there for a few days. She is said to be in a sad condition, and is being cared for by Dr. Brannan.

She told a little about herself, but is in a sad condition.

[From the New, Oct. 7.]

QUEEN CLARA'S LAST WORDS.

Nellie Brown, or Nellie Martin, who was recently released from Blackwell's Island asylum, was said to be in a happy condition. She was said to be very well and to have made a complete recovery.

She was said to be in a happy condition.

Sunday Oct 9, 1887 26:5 World 5/5